

SCORE DEAD IN FLOODS, COLD BRINGS MISERY

Millions Of Dollars Worth Of Property Damaged

By The Associated Press.
New York, March 13.—(P)—Flood waters inflicted death and destruction on a steadily rising scale as they ebbed and flowed through the valleys and over the plains of the northeast last (Friday) night.

Nineteen persons were dead, hundreds were homeless, and millions of dollars worth of property was wrecked or damaged at the end of the second day of flood havoc.

President Roosevelt authorized the expenditure of $5,334,000 of work relief funds to combat the emergency.

Frozen streams that came suddenly alive under the spring thaws were subsiding in some sections, but continued to rise in others.

Where the flood menace abated, snow and freezing temperatures brought misery to the homeless.

Transportation and communication lines were crippled in many sections of New England and the middle Atlantic states when ice jams broke away with thunderous roars and floods boiled into of destruction.

Coast guard planes and power boats stood poised for rescue work as five of the northeast's greatest rivers threatened to burst their bounds.

They were the Merrimack and Connecticut in New England, the Passaic in New Jersey, the Hudson in New York, and the Susquehanna in Pennsylvania.

Eight deaths were counted in New England, four in Pennsylvania, four in Quebec, and one each in New York, New Jersey and Ontario.

Judge Orders Two Daughters Of WPA Worker To School

Josiah Watson Had Claimed Public School System Is "Mechanized"

Joliet, Ill., March 13.—(P)—The two daughters of Josiah Watson were ordered back to school today, despite their father's objection that the public school system has become "mechanized."

Watson, a WPA worker and former science teacher in the Joliet Township High School, withdrew his daughters from school last January with the announced intention of giving them a better education at home.

County Judge George N. Blatt ruled, however, that they must be back in their classrooms Monday.

Outside of court, Watson stated he did not think he would comply with the order, but would risk a fine on a delinquency charge and appeal to a higher court.

"Some teachers can't even teach kindergarten," he remarked. "Others aren't qualified to teach either in or out of school."

Watson, father of five girls, denied he was a radical but insisted that schools nowadays were turning out just "wooden soldiers."

Charges Conspiracy In Infringe On The Freedom Of Press

William Randolph Hearst Asks Court For An Injunction

By Richard L. Turner
Associated Press Staff Writer
Washington, March 13.—(P)—Charging a conspiracy to infringe the freedom of the press, William Randolph Hearst today sought from the courts a sweeping injunction to bar the senate lobby committee from using any existing or future telegraphic correspondence of the publisher.

With the backing of Jerome D. Barnum, president of the American Newspaper Publishers Association, who filed a supporting affidavit, Hearst asked the supreme court of the District of Columbia to require the committee to return all Hearst telegrams now in its possession and enjoin it against efforts to obtain additional messages.

The federal communications commission, charged with illegally delivering copies of Hearst telegrams to the committee, also was made a party to the suit which asked that the injunction apply equally to that agency.

Elisha Hanson, counsel for the Newspaper Publishers Association, said the effect of the suit would be first of all to bring the Black committee into court in defense of its contention that the courts have no jurisdiction over it.

State Sales Tax Brings $500,000 For Relief Fund

Relief Commission Informed $250,000 Will Be Given To Counties

Chicago, March 13.—(P)—Additional funds for relief purposes during March to the extent of $500,000 came from states, sales tax sources today, reducing the cut in clients' budgets from 13.7 per cent to 8.8 per cent.

Of this additional money, the relief commission was informed $250,000 had been allocated to counties. The remainder, Leo M. Lyons, executive secretary, said, was not being allocated until he was officially assured it could be available.

At a meeting two weeks ago, the commission limited county allocations to $4,586,734 as against estimated needs of about $5,253,000. The additional money came, Chairman John C. Martin said, from taxes paid under protest but eventually released to the state treasurer's office.

William H. Sexton, commissioner member, immediately moved to convene in the executive action allocating the additional money to the counties and then asked what progress had been made in cutting administrative expenses in proportion to the reduced budgets of clients.

A report, prepared by E. E. Feneberg, chief statistician, was read, showing that between Nov. 1, 1935, and March 1, 1936, commission employment had been decreased 27 per cent, compared with a decrease of 35 per cent in the case load. In Cook county the reduction of staff was 25 per cent, the reduction in case load 31 percent; downstate it was 38 per cent and 40 percent.

Special activities in Cook county—hot available, to downstate clients—were described by Lyons as the reasons for the difference in the Cook county percentages.

Mayor Of Stickney Takes Stand In His Malfeasance Trial

Claims State's Attorney Is Trying To Oust Him From Office

Chicago, March 13.—(P)—William C. Loeffler, president of the village of Stickney, charged from the witness stand at his malfeasance trial today that State's Attorney Thomas J. Courtney had political reasons for accusing him of running a "wide open" town.

The effort to oust him as chief executive of the village where Al Capone formerly maintained headquarters resulted, the defendant testified, from Loeffler's refusal to close a resort which Courtney wanted put out of business.

At that time, Loeffler asserted, Courtney's chief investigator, Captain Daniel Gilbert, warned him: "The next time you run, I'll put up a candidate to beat you."

The village president accused Courtney himself of telling the Stickney board of trustees: "You'd better pull off Loeffler's ticket because he isn't the state's attorney's candidate and never will be."

Loeffler testified the resort in question had been "cleaned up" before Courtney demanded it be shut.

Several character witnesses were heard, and the trial was continued until Monday.

Henry Rubel called in the city yesterday from Alexander.

FDR SUMMONS AIDES TO NEW RELIEF PARLEY

Seeks Final Decision On How Much Extra Money Needed

By Thomas J. Hamilton, Jr.
Associated Press Staff Writer
Washington, March 13.—(P)—Amid threats of new congressional attacks on the New Deal Work Relief Program, President Roosevelt tonight sought a final decision on how much extra money would be required to continue federal jobs for the needy.

The president summoned Harry L. Hopkins, Corrington Gill, WPA accounting expert, and Daniel Bell, acting director of the budget, to the White House for the fourth time in recent weeks.

Earlier, at his press conference, he declined to indicate how much he would ask from congress to carry on after July 1, but speculation centered on the possibility this would be held to about $1,000,000,000.

The president also declined to comment on a demand by the United States conference of mayors for a $2,340,000,000 appropriation to continue WPA an entire year.

With the vowed intention of fathering additional information for the new senate floor attacks on Hopkins and the WPA, Senator Holt, West Virginia Democrat, returned to his home state today. He has charged that the West Virginia WPA administration was dominated by "political influences."

After an investigation by his aides, Hopkins denied this was true. Holt characterized the investigation as a "whitewash."

Senator Davis (R-Pa.) said today he would press next week for passage of his resolution for a "full and complete" investigation of WPA in a "serious way."

Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.) former Governor Gifford Pinchot of Pennsylvania, and others have charged that WPA workers had been asked to make "political" contributions in some Pennsylvania counties.

Clinton County Jailer Refuses To Leave Post

Robert K. Hooker Won't Quit Until Sheriff Pays Board Bill

Carlyle, Ill., March 13.—(P)—Clinton County Jailer Robert K. Hooker jangled the cell keys tonight, glaring out the window and vowed he would defy efforts of Sheriff Frank Dugan to oust him until the sheriff paid his board bill.

The bachelor official, said Hooker, has been eating many meals at the Hooker family table and hasn't "squared up" for them. And Hooker further asserts there is no good reason why the sheriff and his chief deputy, Fred P. Haderlein, should desire his removal.

"It's nothing more than jealousy," said Hooker, former captain in the guard at the Southern Illinois state penitentiary. "It's a freeze out. They can't give any good reason why they want me discharged. I still carry the keys to the jail and I am going to keep them until the board bill is paid."

Meanwhile the sheriff, who was out of town today, and could not be reached, and the deputy, who wouldn't talk, awaited hearing Monday on a mandamus action in circuit court to compel Hooker to move out.

GLENN SPEAKS

Ottawa, Ill., March 13.—(P)—Otis F. Glenn, seeking the Republican nomination to his old post of United States senator, said in a campaign address here tonight that he advocated the continuance, without impairment, of the authority and power of the United States Supreme Court. He said if nominated and elected he would fight to preserve the rights and functions of the highest tribunal in the land.

SEEKS ANNULMENT

East St. Louis, Ill., March 13.—(P)—Mrs. Helen Dolores St. George, daughter of State Senator Louis J. Menges, filed a petition in city court today for annulment of her marriage to George St. George, a chemist.

The couple eloped to St. Charles, Mo., last July 10 after a six day courtship.

W. D. Stapleton of Alexander was a business visitor in the city yesterday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. George Thies of Woodson were in the city yesterday.

Accomplices Of Detroit Auditor Are Being Sought

Department Of Justice Men Have Entered Detroit Investigation

Detroit, March 13.—(P)—The department of justice joined local authorities today in investigating the disappearance of $349,000 in city trust funds from a bank which led to the suicide of Harry M. Tyler, assistant city budget director.

While city officials assembled evidence indicating that the free-spending Tyler obtained at least part of the money by forging checks on the teachers' retirement fund, interest centered on a search for possible accomplices.

One phase of the investigation was delayed today when Tyler's widow, returning hurriedly from a vacation trip in the 16-cylinder automobile he had given her, refused to open Tyler's safety deposit box. Officers at once asked for a court order to open the box.

Ben E. Young, vice-president of the National Bank of Detroit, announced after a secret conference with city officials that the federal agents had been called into the case.

Albert E. Cobo, city treasurer who said "absolute proof that Tyler embezzled the money is in the hands of the police," charged the bank with responsibility for the loss. Both he and William J. Curran, city controller, asserted that the bank paid the money to Tyler without authorization and without the signature of anyone in the treasurer's office.

Evanston Wins Safety Contest For Second Time

Traffic Death Rate In Chicago Suburb Is 2.9 Per 100,000

Chicago, March 13.—(P)—For the second time in three years Evanston, Ill., today was announced the 1935 winner of the annual National Traffic Safety Contest, conducted by the National Safety Council.

The Chicago suburb of 60,000 population established a 1935 traffic death rate of 2.9 per 100,000 to lead all the 801 municipalities, regardless of population, that participated in the contest. Evanston tied for the grand prize with Pittsburgh in 1933 but was out of the running in 1934 when its death rate jumped to 9.1.

In competition among 11 cities of more than 500,000 population, Milwaukee, grand prize winner in 1934, was ranked first with a traffic death rate of 10.8 identical with its 1934 figure.

New York was second in the big city group. Its 1935 death rate of 13.3 considerably lower than the 22.7 set by Chicago, which was placed third. However, the judges said that while there were several lower 1935 figures than Chicago's, the Windy City won its place by virtue of the substantial reduction effect in its 1934 figure of 27.3.

Central Falls, R. I., with a population of 25,000, was the largest city to finish the year without a traffic fatality.

In the classification of 33 states, Illinois was first in Class AA and Delaware first in Class AAA.

Winners in other population groups included: 25,000 to 50,000—First, Superior, Wis.; second, Tucson, Ariz.; third, Central Falls, R. I. Honorable mention—Elin, Ill., Joliet, Ill.

10,000 to 25,000—First, Swissvale, Pa.; second, Roselle, N. J.; third, Pampa, Tex. Honorable mention—Pekin, Ill.

Conviction Of Youth Is Upheld

Oklahoma City, March 13.—(P)—The Oklahoma criminal court of appeals today upheld the conviction of Phil Kennamer, under a 25 year sentence for manslaughter in the slaying of John Gorrell, a dental student.

Kennamer, 20-year-old son of Federal Judge F. E. Kennamer of Tulsa, was convicted in district court at Pawnee. The jury left the sentence to the court and Judge Thurman S. Hurst set it at 25 years in state's prison.

Released on $25,000 appeal bond after a few weeks in state's prison, Kennamer had been living in Tulsa and at his father's ranch. His attorneys now have 15 days to ask for rehearing. If a new hearing is not granted, Kennamer will be returned to prison.

SUES FOR DIVORCE

Tampa, Fla., March 13.—(P)—Paul Derringer, Cincinnati Reds' pitcher, has filed suit for divorce against Vera M. Derringer, charging his wife with "violent and ungovernable temper."

The petition was filed in circuit court December 14.

The Derringers came into court today for a hearing on Mrs. Derringer's petition for temporary alimony, costs and attorneys fees, but the hearing was postponed until next Tuesday.

JUANITA BORG WINS CUSTODY OF HER CHILD

Victor In Court Fight With Millionaire Father-In-Law

Chicago, March 13.—(P)—Pretty 19 year old Juanita Borg won a complete victory today in her court battle with her millionaire father-in-law, George W. Borg, for custody of her 15 months old son.

Denying the petition of the manufacturer, who is chairman of the Borg-Warner Co., for a habeas corpus writ for return of the boy, Judge Michael Feinberg held "the right of a child" to a mother's care supercedes even the advantages which an indulgent grandparent could provide and sustained her right to keep the infant she took from the Borg summer home in Delavan, Wis., last summer.

Ending of the two day court hearing in her favor, brought from the young mother only the comment that she was "very happy."

Her father-in-law, whose "good intentions" Judge Feinberg said he had no intention of reflecting on, accepted the ruling "willingly," he said.

"I only wanted to discharge my responsibilities under the Wisconsin guardianship," Judge Feinberg's decision made it plain that he was ruling only on the matter of custody of young George Marshall Borg, Jr. here.

It was on the basis of the legal wardship established for him over the child last summer in Walworth county, Wis., that the senior Borg sought a writ for the boy's return from his mother. He claimed she was "an unfit person" to have charge of the rearing.

To this, Judge Feinberg's opinion said there was "not even a contention of the lack of moral appreciation on the part of the mother." She became a mother at a very early age yet the petitioner (George W. Borg) gave her credit for being a devoted mother during the nursing period.

After the opinion was delivered, 21 year old George Marshall Borg, who sided with his father and against his estranged wife in the proceedings, took her arm and walked off for a short conference to arrange for his seeing the boy.

Claims Americans Can't Consume All Farmers Can Raise

Edward A. O'Neal Declares Crop Regulation Is Necessary

Chicago, March 13.—(P)—Edward A. O'Neal, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, declared today crop regulation is necessary because "the American Stomach isn't big enough to consume all the farmers can raise."

Speaking before the state spring conference of the American Home department of the Illinois Federation of women's clubs, O'Neal also expressed approval of the administration's gold policy. He said:

"When America did what we farmers' term 'dethroned the god of gold,' this country didn't do anything other countries hadn't done—managed their currency. Even England, a leading commercial nation, had done this. And what has been the result in this country?"

The United States has cornered a large portion of the world's gold supply, he said, as a result.

Discussing economic conditions prior to passage of the AAA, recently declared unconstitutional by the supreme court, the farm leader said:

"We have been criticized for plowing under little pigs and cotton, but just prior to passage of the AAA unemployment had increased 33 per cent."

After passage of the AAA, he declared, farm income increased $2,500,000,000, auto registration 257 per cent, steel output 257 per cent and wholesale turnover 33 per cent.

"When you read propaganda on the front pages of newspapers, turn to the financial pages and see if the material there bears out the other stories," he advised the women.

WATER EMPLOYES QUIT

East St. Louis, Ill., March 13.—(P)—Fifty employees of the maintenance department of the East St. Louis and Interurban Water Co., which supplies water to fifteen communities, went on strike today.

The strikers, members of the Plumber Fitters and Laborers Unions, asked for union recognition, a closed shop contract and a 25 per cent increase in pay. Present wage rates range from 35 cents an hour to 87 cents an hour.

Officials of the company said the strike would not affect water supplies but would prevent repairs.

Kansas City, March 13.—(P)—James Gorog and his wife were oceans apart, so he got a divorce today.

Married in Hungary in 1903, he came here in 1905. He said his wife refused to join him because she feared crossing the ocean. He told Judge Willard M. Benton he was afraid to cross it, again, to rejoin her.

League Will Hear French, Belgian Complaints Against Germany's Treaty Violation

By Joseph E. Sharkey
Associated Press Foreign Staff
London, March 13.—(P)—The British government, fighting for time to allow Adolf Hitler a final opportunity to reconsider in the face of stern French demands for sanctions, succeeded tonight in delaying action on his re-militarization of the Rhineland for at least several days.

The four remaining Locarno treaty powers, after a day-long discussion, agreed to make tomorrow's meeting of the League of Nations council hear a mere dress rehearsal to hear the French and Belgians state their complaint against Germany's violation of the treaty.

The council will then adjourn over the weekend while Britain, France, Italy and Belgium return to a consideration of recommendations they will make to the council and also await word from Hitler as to whether a conciliatory gesture by him is forthcoming.

This delay was brought about by the British, it was understood, after the French made clear they are unrelenting in pressing for the fullest legal punishment of Germany.

"We are ready to go as far as possible in this direction—certainly as far as the other Locarno powers will go with us," said the Paris spokesman.

The French attitude, it was disclosed, remains absolutely unchanged from the point of view there should be a full application of the League covenant.

Despite the statement in an official communiqué that "a closer approximation of views" had been reached, a French spokesman said privately "no substantial progress has been made."

It was emphasized nothing can be done for the moment until it is seen whether Adolf Hitler will make a gesture of conciliation or continue deaf to British appeals for one.

The Rhineland problem will pass from the hands of the Locarno powers—Britain, France, Belgium, and Italy—tomorrow and be merged into a general international problem when the council of the League of Nations meets here to take up the Franco-Belgian appeals.

Alleged Bank Robber Nabbed By Federal Men

Edward Bent Charged With 40 Robberies Found In Dumb-Waiter Shaft

New York, March 13.—(P)—Edward Bentz, whom federal agents charge with participation in 40 bank robberies with a total loot running into millions of dollars, was seized today—crawling in a dumbwaiter shaft, clad only in his underwear.

Government operatives surrounded the apartment building in Brooklyn where he was captured, and filled the lower floor with tear gas bombs. With drawn guns they gingerly advanced into the building to meet the man they have hunted for more than a year as one of the most notorious bandits in the country.

"Don't shoot, boys. I'll come right out," a voice said and following it, the agents came upon Bentz jammed in the dumb waiter shaft where he had tried to flee.

"Well," he said, "you boys have been looking for me a long time. I guess."

Rummaging in the room, the agents found two machine guns, a rifle, four automatic pistols, a bullet proof vest and hundreds of rounds of ammunition.

At police headquarters they exhibited his record.

Among the bank robberies with which he is charged were: Caledonia National Bank, Danville, Vt., June, 1934, between $20,000 and $25,000.

First National Bank, Milford, Pa., December, 1935, $15,000.

He was booked on bank robbery charges as Edward Wilhelm Bentz, 40 years old. Government agents said Vermont authorities probably would be given the first opportunity to have him extradited.

30 Persons Are Claiming Estate Of James Kelly

"Flophouse Miser" Left Hoard Of $140,000 When He Died Year Ago

By W. W. HERCHER
Associated Press Staff Writer
Chicago, March 13.—(P)—The Kellys began to gather here today.

So did the Dwyers, the Donnellys, the Hearnings and the Carleys, all claiming kinship with James Thomas Kelly, the "flophouse miser," who left a hoard of $140,000 when he died alone a year ago.

The first hearing to determine his legal heirs will open tomorrow before special Probate Commissioner Irwin N. Walker and others will be held throughout the summer, Walker said.

There were 30 claimants ready to appear in person or by their attorneys to prove their relationship to Kelly and their right to share in his riches, which no one knew he possessed until after he died in an atmosphere of poverty.

Family Bibles were being dusted off to help prove the claims, and old photograph albums rescued from the attics, Walker said letters, jewelry and other keepsakes also would be considered in the rebuilding of Kelly's family tree.

At least eight persons have gone to jail for their attempts to get a share in the estate by illegal and fraudulent methods.

CONGRESSIONAL EXPERTS AGREE ON TAX RATES

Corporation Income To Be Taxed 15 To 55 Per Cent

By Douglas B. Cornell,
Associated Press Staff Writer
Washington, March 13.—(P)—Congressional tax experts today agreed tentatively on a broad new tax on the undistributed net income of corporations—ranging from 15 to 55 per cent.

Members of the House ways and means taxation subcommittee promptly asserted such a graduated plan would provide a "substantial cushion" of corporate reserves against lean years and still bring in the full $620,000,000 in additional revenue sought by the administration.

Although Chairman Samuel B. Hill (D-Wash.) of the subcommittee emphasized that the agreement was only tentative, it nevertheless emerged as the first definite action to mark a week and a half of steady subcommittee work on President Roosevelt's $782,000,000 tax program.

Some subcommittee members said privately they thought the new schedule was almost certain to be recommended later to the full ways and means committee.

The 15 per cent rate would apply to all undistributed net corporation profits up to 10 per cent. The top rate of 55 per cent would affect all undistributed net profits of 30 per cent, or more.

"The cushion's in there, and it's a good one," Hill announced. "It doesn't cut the yield, which still is $620,000,000."

While the corporate levy is the foundation stone of the administration's tax plan, and today's decision clarified the most important point of dispute yet brought into the tax deliberations, tough problems yet unsolved gave indication that it might be nearly another month before the new bill could be brought to the House floor.

Hopkins Acts Promptly

Whatever may be said of Harry Hopkins as a public official, he deserves a word of approval for his prompt action in dismissing two WPA supervisors in Southern Illinois who are accused of soliciting political contributions from WPA workers. Hopkins followed his action with a statement that "we will fire anyone else caught doing the same thing." Which is exactly what ought to happen to anyone who seeks political cash from people already so poor that they must accept WPA jobs.

The average worker on the government projects receives only $44 per month. He has already felt the humiliation of being on relief. He is haunted by the fear that, if the job he now has comes to an end, he cannot find another, and he knows the terrors of unemployment. It would seem that people who work for WPA have trouble enough, without being hounded by political workers seeking contributions and threatening disaster if the cash is not forthcoming.

If Hopkins sticks to his guns, and every report of such activity among people on WPA is run to earth, doubtless more solicitors will lose their jobs with the government. Grafting of money is about the lowest form of political activity, and anyone who engages in it should never again be trusted in public service.

Russia Blocks France

Hitler, with his troops in the Rhineland, is apparently faced with war on two fronts if he does not accede to demands for retreat. The Franco-Russian pact links the two nations for united action against Germany, which is something for the Nazi dictator to worry about.

He blames this very pact for inciting his advance into the disputed territory, saying that France has broken the Locarno treaty by making an alliance with Russia. Yet the pact had not been ratified by the French Senate before Hitler made his coup. But the Senate lost no time in making the alliance sure after German troops were within a mile of the French lines.

In making an alliance with the communists, France may be letting herself in for a bunch of trouble. Just why Russia should have confidence in such an important treaty with a capitalist nation is hard to see, in view of the stand she has taken against all capitalism. Nevertheless, international politics, like all other varieties, makes strange bed-fellows.

It war comes now, Germany must fight on two fronts, and perhaps more. Hitler faces a gigantic task if he defies the French and their allies, who believe that war now will prevent a greater slaughter later. It may mean the utter collapse of Germany, and a return of that chaotic condition that followed the world war.

It is significant that France, in her fear of Hitler, has been driven into the arms of the communists. German fascism came as an antidote to communism, yet if Germany is again crushed, communism may seize her in its grip.

Fear of Torture

"It won't hurt, will it?"
With these words on his lips, a youthful murderer was placed in the electric chair at Columbus, Ohio. He paid the extreme penalty for the murder of an aged couple whom he was trying to rob of a pair of shoes. If the shock did hurt him, the pain lasted no more than seven minutes, for death was assured just that long after the first shock was given.

The fear of pain is inherent in every human being. Those who endure it must steel themselves against it. Torture through physical pain does not stop there; the fear of such pain is even worse. Capital punishment is often necessary; but when it is inflicted, it should be instant and painless. If a criminal pays with his life for his crime, a painless death is the least consideration he should receive.

The lethal gas route is perhaps the most merciful yet devised for the execution of criminals. At one state penitentiary where this method was recently installed, several convicts were drilled into the death chamber to watch a demonstration of its effectiveness. A hog was the victim, and it was dead in a few seconds.

The lesson went home. The prisoners saw that, while death might be made painless at the hands of the state, it was certain for those who were sealed in the glass lethal chamber.

Following music and a devotional period, Dr. McClelland spoke on the work of the college and introduced three MacMurray students, one a local young woman, Miss Rachel Lohman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry J.

Lohman, who gave a very interesting talk on "Religious Instruction Given in a Christian College."

From all indications of this first gathering, these services of inspiration and mutual benefit will prove unusually interesting.

Harry Finke Turns In Resignation as Boy Scout Director

Mascoutah Area Executive Will Leave Here for Alaska March 21

Harry F. Finke, popular executive of Mascoutah Area of Boy Scouts for the last 2 years, yesterday tendered his resignation to the Area board. The members of the board received the resignation with regret, as the work in Scouting has grown in interest and scope during the time "Chief" Finke has been in charge.

Mr. Finke expects to leave Jacksonville about March 21, and will go to Alaska where he will engage in business.

His resignation was submitted to J.

N. Gouver, president of the board, and follows: "Owing to the fact that I have definitely made arrangements for going to Alaska and for subsequent employment in that place, I wish to resign my duties as Scout Executive of the Mascoutah Area Council. If possible I should like to be released about March 21, this depending upon what arrangements can be made during that time.

"It has been with mixed feelings of regret and anticipation for myself that I have considered this move. I assure you that I have appreciated the friendship and loyalty of the executive board and Scouts of the Council.

"With everything taken into consideration, I am confident that there need be no extended let-up, if any, in the activities of our Council.

"Very sincerely,
HARRY F. FINKE."

Each member of the executive board at the meeting yesterday morning expressed regret at Mr. Finke's proposed departure from the community. The organization and activities of Mascoutah Area Council are now at a high peak of efficiency, due largely to Mr. Finke's fine work. A meeting of the executive board with troop representatives and Scouters from all towns of the Area will be held in Jacksonville sometime next week to discuss a continuance of the Scout program. Members of the executive board expressed hope that the activities can be continued under direction of a full-time executive.

Small Grant From State Meets Relief Crisis in County

Emergency Is Bridged This Time; Allotment for Rest of Month

The county Emergency Relief organization has been able to care for the unexpected addition of cases during the first half of March by securing a small amount of money from the state. Mrs. Tillie Kelly, relief superintendent, announced yesterday. The money was forthcoming because other counties were granted a proportionate amount from the state funds. However, the allocation for the first half of March was materially reduced, and the same is true of funds for the last half of the month, for which the allocation totals $10,000.

When new cases are received they are given a disbursement order. The relief station is allowed to keep a few cases in this class, especially those that have shown themselves incapable of wisely handling the cash relief, which is now the rule throughout the state.

The cash relief received by each family is on a budgetary basis. The cash covers the amount the family has been receiving in orders or from WPA to meet its budgeted needs. The spending of the money is left to the recipients, but if it is so spent that it does not meet the family needs for the half month for which it is intended, there is no more money available.

The allocation for the remainder of March covers all of the county relief cash, coal, property orders, administration, etc. The amount has been reduced, and if a situation similar to the recent emergency arises and there is an increase in cases, there will of course be another emergency.

Club Votes Funds To Several Causes

White Hall Women Assist Cancer Control Work at Park Ridge School

White Hall—The White Hall Domestic Science club held a postponed meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. R. I. Beatty on Main street. The assistant hostesses were Mrs. Kenneth Taylor and Mrs. John T. White. The usual opening exercises were used including singing of the club song, "Illinois," Pledge of allegiance, and a prayer offered by Mrs. Nora Mason. Mrs. Martha Moody read the inspiration poem, "Better Than Gold," by Alexander Smart. Roll call was "New Gadgets for the Home," and a number of the members brought gadgets for exhibition.

There was a lengthy business meeting, during which reports were made of the success of the entertainment given in the Presbyterian church Monday evening, the proceeds of which amounted to about fifteen dollars. Donations were voted for several district and state federation funds, including Cancer Control, Indian Welfare, Lorado Taft scholarship fund, and the Penny Art Fund.

A silver spoon was presented to Jack Kent Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Taylor, the first baby born to a club member in a number of years.

The president, Mrs. Mont R. Winters, made a report of the district meeting held in Jacksonville Tuesday of this week, and announcement was made of the County Federation meeting to be held in Carrollton Methodist church March 18 at 2 p. m., and of the District meeting to be held in Rodhouse, April 22 and 23.

Mrs. Ansil Brannan read an excellent article on "Radio." Mrs. Allen Brannan read a paper on "Pottery, the Oldest Known Art." Mrs. Brannan had several pieces of pottery, and several pictures to illustrate her paper, and closed with a beautiful and touching poem "Tribute to the Pottery of White Hall," written by Julia Davis Kessinger of White Hall, who is of the fourth generation of the first potter to settle in White Hall, John Ebey who started his first pottery here in 1835, more than a hundred years ago.

Connie Mack Has Started To Build Another Baseball Team From The Bottom Up

By Eddie Brink
Associated Press Sports Writer
Fort Myers, Fla., March 13.—(AP)—The tall Irish, who likes to tear apart and put them back together again, has started out to build himself another baseball team.

"Yes," said Connie Mack, 73-year-old patriarch of the American league, today. "We are going to have to do it all over again—build from the bottom."

Mack cracked his whip and talked about prospects as the Philadelphia Athletics of 1935—40 beardless youngsters, half of whom had never seen a Philadelphia uniform until they came here two weeks ago—scattered all over the big lot.

"Plenty of fine ball players out there," went on the venerable leader of the A's. "Give me two, maybe three years and I'll have another pennant contender."

"It's a big job, but we've tackled them just as big before. I guess I should be getting used to it by now."

Winter deals with the Boston Red Sox riddled the 1935 Mackmen, Jimmy Fox, home run slugger and backbone of some of the great athletic machines of recent years, departed for Beantown. So did Johnny MacCormack, star pitcher, Roger Cramer, fleet outfielder, and Eric McNair, shortstop.

But Mack kept enough veteran players to give him a foundation to build on this year. He still has catcher Charlie Berry, infielders Frank Higgins and Harold Warstler, outfielders Bob Johnson, Wally Moses and Lou Finney and a half dozen good pitchers. Higgins is a hold-out and has not reported.

"We failed last season mainly because you young pitchers disappointed," Mack said. "They had plenty on the ball, but didn't know how to behave on the mound. This year our pitching should be better and by the end of the season I expect our staff to be on a par with any in the American league."

"I'll have Vernon Wilshire, Bill Dietrich, Charles Leiber, Carl Doyle, George Turberville, and Woodrow Upchurch from last year's staff. All are good pitchers. Doyle and Upchurch look better than ever. Henry Johnson and Gordon Rhodes, who came to us from Boston, will give us needed experience. I expect great things from Harry Kelly, drafted from Atlanta. And there is always the chance we may have a real find among the youngsters."

Mack is grooming Jim Oglesby, a left-handed first sacker from Los Angeles in the Pacific Coast league, to succeed Fox. If he fails to deliver, Finney will be called in from the outfield to play first. He was on the pivot sack during the time Fox caught last year. Olive Dean, a big collegian from Duke University, shows a lot of promise but needs seasoning.

The hustling "Rabbit" Warstler will be back at second. If Higgins signs he will take care of third. If not, Lamar Newsome from Syracuse will start at the hot corner. Al Niemiec from Los Angeles and Jack Pearson from Albany are the shortstop candidates.

With Johnson, Moses and Finney, all holdovers, available, the outfield is pretty well set. But if Finney is needed for infield duty, George Funchell and Emil Mallico, drafted from Baltimore and Oakland, will battle it out for the centerfield spot.

Berry will do the bulk of the catching again.

To the Athletic leader, the Boston Red Sox, reinforced by such performers as Fox, Cramer, Heinie Manush and McNair, look like the most improved club in the league. But he doesn't expect the hose to win the pennant without a hot fight from Detroit, Cleveland and New York.

"You must count all those clubs in," he said. "To me it looks like a four-club race."

Among the second division outfits, he thinks the improved St. Louis Browns are the team with the best chance of getting somewhere.

Michigan-Indiana Battling Saturday

After Western Conference Indoor Track Title

BY WILLIAM WEEFES
Associated Press Sports Writer
Chicago.—(AP)—Michigan and Indiana will tangle in another one of their battles for the Western conference indoor track title tomorrow night in the University of Chicago fieldhouse—with Wisconsin poised to snatch the honors should Wolverines or Hoosiers falter.

Michigan, relying on well distributed power rather than individual stars, will be seeking its third straight championship. The Wolverines won easily last year, shaded Indiana in 1934, and finished runnerup to the Hoosiers in 1932 and 1933, after rousing struggles.

With Willis Ward, versatile negro star who furnished the framework for its victories in 1934 and 1935, graduated, Michigan does not shape up as any better than second choice. Indiana, remarkably certain of a fistful of points from its sensational quartet, Don Lash, Romaine Hobbs, Jimmy Smith, and Tom Deckard, who may account for victories and places in the half mile, mile, and two mile runs, has a decided edge in the advance figuring.

The Hoosiers have enough outside strength in Dan Caldemeyer, hurdler and high jumper, Malcolm Nicks, quarter-mile, and Bob Collier, sprinter, to roll up 35 points, which should be enough to win.

Preliminary heats in the 440 and 880 yard runs will be held tonight. Trials in the dash and hurdles will be run off tomorrow afternoon with the title final at night.

Memories of that baseball excursion to St. Louis last summer flitted across our mind's eye Thursday night and again last night as the Jacksonville folk wended their way homeward from the Pittsfield sectional tournament.

And if we do say so, ourself, the drivers of those cars seemed to have become imbued with the idea of double safety on the highways. A whole lot of them carried the Journal and Courier "Safety or Else" stickers.

Quincy again ranked as one of the most unpopular teams in the Pittsfield sectional tournament. They had a bunch of big boys who wanted the ball all the time, but found a bunch of bull-dogs yipping on their heels all the time.

Quincy incurred the crowd's displeasure with its method of trying to get the ball. When the Quincy players got their hands on the ball, they gave it a tug, and if any of the Hull players happened to be hanging on, they took a quick jump in the same direction.

There is nothing wrong in tugging for the ball; players are allowed one tug according to a note in the rule-book. The code doesn't attempt to distinguish between a little tug and a big tug.

We don't know where the custom came from, but we think it's a lousy one—and hope that Jacksonville rooters don't absorb the idea. The custom we refer to is "boiling" a player when he leaves the court, just because he has been aggressive and caused a few players to roll on the court.

"Boiling" officials is bad enough, but we believe "boiling" players is even worse. We rather wish more schools would get the idea that they are sponsoring the contests, and that the spectators are allowed to enter the gymnasium out of kindness.

Elmer Todd, Pleasant Hill's sprint and football star of a few seasons ago, has signed to play football with the Philadelphia Eagles this fall. Todd played some of his collegiate football at Illinois Wesleyan, and later played at McKendree. He has played pro football with the St. Louis Gunners and the Kansas City Blues.

We hear the name of Art Doolen, Illinois Wesleyan's basketball star, is being mentioned in connection with the Philadelphia Eagles.

Robinson Answers H. Hoover

Charges Former President is Taking Every Opportunity to "Destroy" Confidence of the People.

STATEMENTS MADE

By LEONARD B. SHUBERT (Associated Press Staff Writer) Washington—(AP)—The deal was locked in a verbal struggle with Herbert Hoover today on government financial policies.

Senator Robinson of Arkansas, majority leader, in a broadcast defense of administration expenditures, struck out repeatedly at Mr. Hoover and declared the former president thought to "destroy" confidence.

"Hoover, in New York, at the same time reiterated his insistence on a stable currency and a stable credit," Robinson said last night.

Robinson said Hoover took every opportunity to question the financial policy of the federal government and to raise doubts in the minds of people who have a little money invested.

"He keeps preaching that inflation is on the way and that its consequences will ruin investors," the senator declared.

Mr. Hoover claims that he has turned the depression in June of 1932, and that he has been successful in securing recombination with the public, but that he might be able to turn the tide if given another chance.

Robinson declared the "smoke stacks are belching forth smoke" in the industrial regions because the administration "put money in the pockets of farmers."

Behind The Scenes In Washington

Puerto Rican Terrorism Is Serious Problem... Racial Hatred Fanned by Island's Nationalists... Sailing a Small Boat "Qualification" for Marine Expert... Waste of Depression Cited by Amie.

By RODNEY DUTCHER (Journal-Courier Washington)

Corresponding to little else, Washington is the Caribbean sea. One of the New Deal's minor headaches and somebody seems to have thrown away the aspirin bottle.

Fanatical nationalism and terrorism in Puerto Rico threaten to embarrass an administration which has given a great benevolent program of rehabilitation to the island itself.

While holding out the hand of a "good neighbor" to the rest of Latin America and abandoning the old "Pan-Americanism" traditions of imperialism.

The situation is tense following the arrest of Pedro Albizu Campos, the Harvard-educated Nationalist party leader, and six followers. The administration of charges made public here by A. M. Thompson, member of the United States House of Representatives, who is a supporter of the Nationalist party, was asked to aid the Bureau campaign financially.

Walter Williams, district WPA director, said he was informed yesterday that alleged activities of Williams and Parsons were under investigation. He has denied connections with the two men.

Senator J. Hamilton Lewis had previously promised a senatorial inquiry if affidavits were obtained to support charges from southern Illinois.

Hopkins also announced an investigation of charges made public here by A. M. Thompson, member of the United States House of Representatives, who is a supporter of the Nationalist party, was asked to aid the Bureau campaign financially.

Threaten Quiz in Alleged Political Action Among WPA

Claim Funds Collected for Party Purposes; Two Men Discharged

Marion, Ill.—(AP)—With two southern Illinois officials discredited, the state's worst threatened federal investigations among WPA members of the "Political Action Group" of the E. Willis, foreman, and Carl Parsons, superintendent, on a road improvement project, was announced by Representative Harry L. Hopkins at Washington yesterday.

Hopkins said an investigation had shown the two were "collecting money on a project for political purposes." Hopkins action followed complaints of 15 WPA workers at Benton, Ill., that the two had been "collecting money on a project for political purposes."

At Springfield Daniel Sullivan, secretary of the Democratic state committee, declared attempts were made to get 800 Codes county WPA workers to attend a Bundt political meeting.

Bundt, last night denied any knowledge of Sullivan's assertion that the campaign meeting he addressed at Mattson yesterday was packed with WPA workers.

He said he was a candidate for the non-Democratic faction headed by Mayor Edward J. Kelly of Chicago.

WALK ON THE LEFT-HAND SIDE OF HIGHWAY

★ The teen-sighted Anellope always wants to "SEE WHAT IS COMING"

No. 78

Admonition to walk on the left-hand side of the highway is contained in the A.A.A. Safety Poster for March being distributed to the schools in Jackson County by the Jacksonville Automobile Club, T. M. Thompson, president, and the local touring organization, with an eye to safety for pedestrians as well as motorists.

"Although automobile-pedestrian collisions are accounted for only about 37 per cent of the accidents on streets and highways of the country, the 'lefts' from these mishaps comprise nearly one-half of all fatalities," the poster says.

Walking on rural highways is one of the most hazardous forms of pedestrianism, some 10,000 accidents resulted in the year on this account.

Funds for Chicago Relief are Short

Many Clients Facing Eviction from Homes

Chicago—(AP)—Chicago relief clients faced eviction from their homes today after an Emergency Relief commission announced that it would be unable to pay rent or electric light bills for Cook county or downstate families this month.

Leo M. Lyons, executive secretary of the commission, said funds available for March rent were $700,000 short of what was needed.

He said that the commission was found necessary.

H. H. Haylett, business manager for the Chicago Real Estate board, said, "The answer to the decree stopping rent payments will be five day evictions. The landlords can do nothing else. They cannot pay their taxes."

Let Us Also Give Thanks...

Let us now also give thanks—not for the beauty, and lovely things in life alone, but for everything.

Let us give thanks for the trials we have had and the manner in which we have endured them; let us give thanks for the hurts we have borne, and the health of body and mind that overcame them; let us give thanks for the errors we have made that have shown us the right from the wrong; let us give thanks for the "knocks" that have strengthened us and brought us into a living realization of our manhood.

Let us be thankful there is a God who guides us day by day—who gives us fortitude and strength—who keeps us well—and who showers us with his Divine love.

Let us be thankful that we can worship Him and vent our emotions in His praise. Let us be thankful for the place where we can meet in His honor and thank Him in one accord for the right to live—the lessons of life—and the privilege to adore Him.

Let us go to Church regularly and give thanks for His blessings.

Chicago Wheat Prices Higher

By John P. Boughan,

Associated Press Market Editor.

Chicago, March 13.—(P)—Swayed temporarily by downturns of the Liverpool market and afterward by upturns at Winnipeg, wheat late today exhibited an indecisive trend, averaging a little higher.

With the volume of business light as a whole, moderate operations on either side had considerable effect.

The majority of traders showed a disposition to await proceedings of the League of Nations Council scheduled for tomorrow and a clearer idea of what course Italy would pursue.

Wheat closed uneven, 1 cent lower to 1 higher compared with yesterday's finish, May $1.01-1.011, July 99 1/4, corn 4-1 up, May 60 1/2-61, oats at 1 decline to an equal gain, and provisions varying from 10 cents set-back to a rise of 7 cents.

Using the changes of Liverpool and Winnipeg quotations as a barometer of war tension, the Chicago wheat pit most of the time found but little incentive to do other than mark time.

A bill in over-seas demand for wheat shipments from Canada following yesterday's big buying tended to act somewhat as a bearish influence. At no stage, however, did May contracts get more than 1 cent below $1.00 per bushel as a minimum standard.

King and Duce Honor Aduwa Heroes

Standing side by side in person as they have in authority since the Fascist march on Rome, King Victor Emmanuel (left) of Italy and Premier Mussolini participated in a field mass commemorating the now avenged tragedy at Aduwa, Ethiopia, 40 years ago. They wear full field uniforms and steel helmets in honor of the troops massacred in the historic battle.

N. Y. Stocks Are Tossed Overboard

By Frank MacMillan,

Associated Press Financial Writer

New York, March 13.—(P)—Unstrung by hitches in European peace negotiations, traders and investors again today tossed stocks overboard.

While selling was somewhat less aggressive than on Thursday it served to hammer numerous market leaders down 1 to 3 or more points. A total of 715 issues finished the session lower, while only 86 managed to advance.
